THE NEWSBOYS' DINNER

PROGRAM OF TOMORROW'S BIG EVENT.

Musters at the Star Office—Dinner at Love's Bakery—Ride Around the City—Football Game.

Twelve o'clock, noon, newsboys muster at the Hawaiian Star office. Twelve thirty p. m., procession starts for Love's Bakery, everybody in front blowing a fish horn.

One p. m. the Star's Thanksgiving dinner to the newsboys begins.

Two p. m., or sooner, the boys take buses and fish horns for a drive around the city, arriving at

Three thirty at the football game at the Punahou grounds the football committee providing tickets.

Three thirty p. m. to the end of the game each boy makes his own choice of winners and uses his own lungs accordingly.

After the game, the boys ride back to town.

The preparations for the Star's Thanksgiving dinner to the newsboys are going on apace, and the preparations of the boys for the dinner are going on apace. The boys won't know what that means when they read it, and they all read the Star, but they won't allow that fact to diminish for them the pleasures of anticipation, nor the pleasures of realization. The Star and the newsboys have eaten Thanksgiving dinner together so often that there is absolute mutual confidence.

The dinner will be on hand for the boys, and the boys will be on hand for the dinner.

The muster will be at the Star office at noon and the dinner will be served soon afterwards. There will be turkey and roast pig and pie and what makes any good dinner really a good dinner, the sauce piquante of good appetite.

THANKSGIVING FOOTBALL

OAHU COLLEGE VS. PUNAHOU
ALUMNI.

A Contest at Punahou—Proceeds for the Benefit of the Lepers' Christmas Fund.

There will be a football game tomorrow, Thanksgiving afternoon, between the Oahu College eleven and the Oahu Alumni. The game will be played at Punahou and will begin at 3:30. The proceeds are to be given to the fund for the Lepers' Christmas.

The college team has won the championship of the Inter-Scholastic League of 1899. It has played several games during the season, and is in practice and ready to put up a strong line. Their team is a lighter one than that of the Alumni.

But the boys have had more practice together and will probably do better team work than their opponents. In any event the contest is certain to be a sharp one.

The Alumni eleven is composed of players who have made good showings all through the season and they are sure to give a good account of themselves tomorrow. They are young men well known in the city, and there is much interest in the contest, as the Oahu boys are preparing to do the best they can in this, probably the last contest on the gridiron for the season.

The lineup of the two teams will be as follows:

Alumni—Center, A. Judd; guards, Walker and Fuller; tackles, Waterhouse and Johnson; ends, Greenwell and Angus; quarterback, Waterhouse; halfbacks, C. H. Cooke and Babbitt; fullback, Soper.

College—Center, L. Robinson; guards, Coats and R. Cooke; tackles, Hemmaway and Lyman or Alexander; ends, M. Robinson and C. Judd; quarterback, Williamson; halfbacks, Marcellino and Cruzan; fullback, Castle.

George R. Carter will umpire the game and Turner will be the referee. The football committee invite all newsboys of the city to attend. Each newsboy must get a card signed by the manager of one of the newspapers. This is one contribution of the committee to the happiness of the day.

AN AFFRAY CASE.

Manuel Phillips and McAduffie will be heard in police court on Friday on the charge of affray. The men came together in a restaurant a few nights ago and had quite a fight before being separated. Phillips was summoned but McAduffie could not be found. He was located today in a city sanitarium where he has gone "on the dry dock for repairs."

TRAMP STEAMER MISSING

BLOOMFEINTAIN NEARLY THREE WEEKS OVERDUE.

Her Engines Supposed To Have Broken Down—She Was To Have Been a Transport.

The British steamer Bloomfeintain is two weeks and three days overdue here from the colonies with a cargo of coal, and it is supposed that she is drifting about the Pacific somewhere with her machinery broken down. The Bloomfeintain is under charter to Waterhouse & Company, and was to have gone from here to Seattle to enter the army transport service. It was expected that she would have passed through here and left Seattle before now, but nothing has been heard of her since she left the colonies. She will probably be too late now to do any service as a transport.

The local agents of the Bloomfeintain are of the opinion that her engines have been disabled and that she is somewhere looking for a tow, if she has not already got one. They expect her to arrive here at any time, in tow of some other steamship. The Bloomfeintain is a large tramp steamer, which has been in the European and Australian trade. She is likely to be brought here by some liner from the colonies, or may have been towed the other way by some passing vessel, to the nearest port, where repairs could be made. Should she encounter rough weather with her engines disabled her plight would be serious.

JOHN HOPP PASSES AWAY

DEATH OF AN OLD RESIDENT OF HONOLULU.

Had Been in Business Here for Forty-four Years—The Funeral Tomorrow Afternoon.

John Hopp, one of Honolulu's oldest residents, died this morning at his home on Alakea street, after a few days' illness. He was at his store attending to business last Saturday, but evening. Since then he had been confined to his home and the end came a few minutes before eleven o'clock this morning. He was seventy-one years of age, and death was due to a general breaking down.

Mr. Hopp had lived in Honolulu for forty-one years. He came here from Germany with the late J. H. Wicke, traveling around the Horn in 1858. For many years after his arrival he followed the trade of a carpenter. The furniture business in which he was engaged at the time of his death was established by his son, who died in 1881. At that time Mr. Hopp took hold of it with his son-in-law, E. M. Marshall, who is the surviving partner. Mrs. Hopp died in 1889, in the same house where her husband passed away this morning.

Mr. Hopp was an old member of Excelsior Lodge, Odd Fellows. His long business career here made him one of the best known men in town, though he was not a man who took any part in public affairs. His business interests and home life occupied all his attention. Mr. Hopp leaves two daughters residing in this city, Mrs. E. M. Marshall and Miss Dora Hopp. Another married daughter, Mrs. Gus Engling, lives in Oakland, California. A brother and sister are in Germany.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at half past three, from the deceased's late residence, next door to the Christian Church. The remains will be interred in the family plot in Nuuanu Cemetery.

CAPTAIN PAUL SMITH.

Captain Paul Smith has received notice that his regiment, the Forty-first, will arrive here within a day or two in the transports Ohio and Indiana. The local man thinks he will be assigned to command Company B of the regiment. Major Chase, of his battalion, and Captain Smith are old friends. The former was here with the Second Oregon last year.

SOLDIERS' THANKS.

P. J. Turner, a soldier of Company L, Thirty-second Infantry U. S. V. who passed through here on the Glenogle, writes from Manila for himself and on behalf of many of his comrades thanking the people of Honolulu for hospitality and kindness received at their hands.

CHICKEN POX.

KOHALA, November 25.—The chicken pox has again appeared among the white children in a more severe form. It is thought that it started among the Japanese.

PROF. DAWSON DEAD.

MONTREAL, November 20.—Sir J. William Dawson, the eminent educator and geologist, and late principal of McGill College, is dead.

A MINISTER OF FINANCE

OR PRESIDENT MCKINLEY AND ONE OF THEM.

Minister Mott-Smith Brings Matte Up Unofficially in Cabinet Today—Thara Gets Life Imprisonment.

At this morning's meeting of the Cabinet Minister Mott-Smith called attention to press reports from Washington that President McKinley had declined to accept the resignation of Minister Damon. He stated that the foreign office has received nothing official concerning the matter and therefore had no suggestion nor recommendation to present. At the time of the appointment of Minister Lansing to succeed Minister Damon the Minister stated he had written the President informing him of the acceptance of his (Damon's) resignation under the sixty-day limit, and the appointment of Mr. Lansing to succeed him.

Formal action was taken with regard to the matter of Ihara, the Kahuku Japanese under sentence of death for murder. It was decided to recommend to the Council of State at 2 o'clock that the sentence be commuted to life imprisonment.

The application of Robert Laing for a light wine and beer license for Makapala ("by the sea") was declined, chiefly on account of the number of school houses in the neighborhood.

A number of applications for licenses for Honolulu were read. Sheriff Andrews recommended that it be issued to Okuba, and this was done.

WALLACE-FOLSON.

Miss Marion E. Folson, of Honolulu, and William H. Wallace, of Portland, were married at St. Andrew's cathedral at 8 o'clock last evening. Rev. Alex. Mackintosh officiating. Miss Jessie Latsch was bridesmaid and Arthur Wall attended the groom. Following the wedding a reception and supper was had at the residence of the bride's parents on Thurston Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace will spend several weeks visiting points of interest in the Islands, after which they will leave for their future home in Portland.

MAY BE THE HONOLULU.

Shipping men think that the Hawaiian schooner reported as having put into Montevideo with her crew in mutiny is the Honolulu, from Cape Town to Australia. No other Hawaiian schooner can be located in that quarter of the world at present, and the Honolulu was supposed to be down there. John Ena, one of the owners of the Honolulu, is inclined to the opinion that the vessel is his.
